Md Transportation Secretary To Keynote
2023 Washington Region Vision Zero Summit
Montgomery County Councilmember To Moderate Q&A

WASHINGTON, DC / MONTGOMERY COUNTY, MD— The Washington Area Bicyclist Association (WABA) is pleased to announce that Maryland Transportation Secretary Paul Wiedefeld will be the keynote speaker for the 2023 Washington Region Vision Zero Summit. Montgomery County Councilmember Natali Fani-González will moderate the Q&A portion of the session, which will run from 10:30AM-11:40AM via Zoom on June 14th.

"Secretary Wiedefeld's efforts to make Vision Zero reality in Maryland reflect our goals region wide," says Elizabeth Kiker, WABA's Executive Director. "We look forward to hearing from him and other speakers about how advocates and community leaders can push forward Vision Zero throughout the DMV region"

The 2023 Washington Region Vision Zero Summit is a hybrid event on Wednesday, June 14th. Programming this year will focus on Community Engagement and Safe Streets. Sessions from 9AM-5PM will take place via Zoom, and there will be an optional in-person gathering from 6-8:30PM where attendees will hear from additional speakers and network with other participants. Pay-what-you-can registration is open to the public at waba.org/2023summit

WABA empowers people to ride bikes, build connections, and transform places. The organization envisions a just and sustainable transportation system where walking, biking, and transit are the best ways to get around.
